

About Us

Office of Management

The Director, Office of Management, is the principal advisor to the Chairman of the Finance Board on management and organizational policies and is responsible for the Finance Board's administrative management programs. This includes responsibility for the Finance Board's technology and information systems as well as finance and accounting, budget, personnel, payroll, contracting and procurement, facilities and property management and the Finance Board's executive secretariat.

